ABOUT

This is to certify that I am a motivated and self disciplined person eager to learn the unknown and to apply my knowledge and skills to each and everything I do. I am a team player with a friendly attitude and ability to mix with people. I like challenges, and enjoy working in a competitive environment. I would like to get myself exposed in a professional environment, so that I can do the best in order to apply my knowledge gained in the past for my employer and also keep updating myself with the current and future trends as the business flows.
